My time at the Alabama Baptist Children's Home in Troy was a special part of my life that grounded me in my faith with the Lord. Growing up attending chapel and weekly church services was an essential part in my journey to know God. Those that were placed in my life through the children's home formed and shaped me into who I am today. They are now gone but live in my memories until we are reunited in the New Jerusalem.

Bits and Pieces to Help Smooth out the Lumps on Your Life's Journey is a book about finding help as you navigate your path through life and tackle the various issues and situations that arise. At times, the mistakes we make due to trusting ourselves when we lack wisdom will compound our efforts and our problems worsen. No matter how old we are, or how much we think we can handle, we can use a faithful, trustworthy, gentle, kind, loving, stable, wise, confident, forgiving, loyal and understanding God to help us along the way. Family, friends and counselors may be available, but sometimes they don't have the real-life experience behind them to provide the connection we need. After reading the bible and not studying it, I still had unanswered questions. Is there more than one baptism? What is the Trinity? What is salvation and what does that mean for me? Who and what are angels? What is prayer about and how do we get results? Who is wise counsel? How does confessing the Word of God affect our spiritual path? Who is Satan and so much more. Through the years, I have found these answers through His Word by studying it from pastors, teachers, bible studies, and getting results. I now have more peace, joy, love, strength, faith and confidence in my choices. Through Bits and Pieces, my personal journey has become remarkably easy and worry free as I have found the Savior who supplies my need graciously as I become stronger in Him. Bits and Pieces is written from my heart and soul and by God's Grace, with the simple desire to help others. Here you can find the support to grow strong, prosper, and free yourself from most havoc, failures, illnesses, and unhealthy relationships. Lighten your sorrows, grief, loss and enjoy a smoother journey. Once you are strengthened, strengthen your brother or sister.

Do you ever struggle with the question "Is God real?" If you are like most Christians, we struggle with questions like these at some point in our lives. Is my faith strong enough to see God work in my life? Did God forget about me? Why can I see God working in others around me, but why don't I see God working in my life? Pieces in Place is Matt and Ellen's personal journey, and a testament to God's hand being on every single piece of their lives. During Covid 19, their faith was not only tested but it was also transformed as they watched the miracles in life unfold in front of them, especially in the "faith still moves mountains" moments. It's an encouragement and reminder that although we don't see how God is working in the pieces of our lives, they are all part of His plan to bring them together perfectly. It demonstrates how His plans are always bigger than ours, and how He is at work, even when we can't see it, feel it, or understand it. We can learn to trust God more and increase our faith as we catch glimpses of God at work in Matt and Ellen's story.

My name is Iris Garcia-Curbelo. I was born in the beautiful Island of Puerto Rico on December 15th, 1962. I lived there up to the age of six. I moved to New York City and lived in the Bronx and Manhattan. It was then I felt a missing fragment in my life, a piece of puzzle that was lost or had been misplaced. As a child, I enjoyed making puzzles and still do; it is my favorite hobby. I incorporated writing my emotions down on paper and reading the Scriptures which lead me to prayer and seeking God. I concluded that I had many questions and tiny broken pieces within me that needed to be worked on. I then recognized the connection of a hobby I loved doing, connecting my own life misplaced pieces and the importance of being connected to God and His word. These connections can unveil beauty, truths and spiritual change. I have written this inspirational book in hope to inspire, and share God's word and my divine pieces of hope interlocked together through faith piece by piece. We all have a story, testimony or a message we want to convey. In my case I want to let others know they are not alone in their brokenness and that there is hope through God's blessings. God has blessed me and He can do the same for you. Trust God and delight in His faithful provision and care as He takes piece by piece and direct your spirit for His purpose and glory. My legacy, my puzzle consists of Faith, Love and Hope filled with Forgiveness and this is my testimony and my message.

In Eating by Faith, Lisabeth invites you into the secret world of her eating disorder, and recovery. And while the illness looks different for every patient, all share a commonality of symptoms physically, emotionally, and spiritually. Eating by Faith will bring you into the mind and heart of someone suffering from the illness in such a brutally honest way, that you will have a greater understanding of the mind and heart of anyone suffering from this illness. Her eating disorder, like most, takes root inside a secret place. This root is often anchored in the lies Satan would have us believe about ourselves. Once established, he will use the eating disorder to separate us from God, robbing us from our joy and our identity in Christ's unconditional love. Lisabeth's story is one of wrestling with the eating disorder, herself, and God. It is about finding her identity in the love of Christ instead of her illness. Taste and See...

We know what pain, rejection, anger, bitterness, and loneliness look and feel like. We know how those emotions intensify when it is from our own family members, those that are supposed to love and take care of us but are not always successful at it. I wanted to feel what others had, to read it, and to experience it just a little. As others shared what their mom relationships were like, that pain was deeper than I realized before. I no longer wanted to live through your experiences; instead, I wanted to let you know I get it a little. Through some real honest moments came some really raw memories and painful truths, not just my own but yours as well. I found myself weeping and praying for all of you that shared your stories with me. I know I needed to go on a journey with God as my guide to find my "missing mom pieces" so I could heal and pass that on to you. So I pray you take this journey as you figure out what your missing mom pieces are so you may feel peace in the pain, strength in the sorrow, and healing in the days to come. Are you ready?

Faith is a lifelong challenge, and it can be something precarious. Even Jesus Christ asked God, Why has thou forsaken me? So what is faith? Is it simply a belief in the unseen God, or is there more? For Christian believers who have been embraced by the Holy Spirit and given the gift of faith, we will be measured by a lifelong struggle to hold fast to faith even though we will be confronted by challenges and frustrations. In Embraced by Faith, author and pastor Vladimir Berzonsky shares his inspired reflections on faith from the Bible and beyond, revealing how God gives us love to guide us to the truth and a relationship with him all through faith. Embraced by Faith explores both Old and New Testament scriptures, showing how we can have communion with God and be led to overcome every obstacle on the path to the kingdom of heaven. Faith is the belief that God can do all things and that he is unconditional love. It is also the belief that his love is revealed and expressed in Jesus Christ. Regardless of what happens to us in our lifetimes, a true faith will help us overcome and prevail over all trials even in the most extreme example, the suffering of Jesus on the cross. To feel abandoned and yet embraced by the Holy Spirit, we can bear all things, believe all things, hope all things, and endure all things (1 Corinthians 13:7).

The poems contained in this book were all written at key points in my life. In essence, each poem served as a source of inspiration to get me through dark times and remind me of my dependency on the grace of God. Each piece included in this book focuses on salvation and who you are in God! You may notice that some of these pieces have a unique flow and structure that one would normally associate with lyrics to a song, and such pieces can be converted to contemporary Gospel songs. Because of the connection between these poems and my heart, I feel these are my most personal work. This book is the first of more to come. I hope that in reading these short pieces you too can be inspired to believe. I believe these poems will inspire you, no matter where you may find yourself in life, as they will serve to remind you that you are somebody because God values you! The greatest message God ever proclaimed to humanity was through the sacrifice of His Son Jesus through His death upon the cross. We live in a world that does not value human dignity, a world that treats people as if they are commodities! But I hope to introduce you through these writings, to a higher love. It is my desire that you learn to see yourself through the eyes of God rather than through the eyes of the world! Remember, better is not good enough! The best is yet to come.

The sister of "La Diva de la Banda"—legendary Mexican-American singer Jenni Rivera—opens up for the first time about Jenni's untimely death and her own triumph over abuse and addiction. Growing up as the youngest Rivera, Rosie was surrounded by unconditional love, support, and affection. There was nothing that her family wouldn't do for her, especially her sister Jenni, who was the most important thing in the world to Rosie. With her strong will and a solid foundation, Rosie was set to conquer the world. Yet life would take a drastic turn when Rivera was scarred by sexual abuse within her family at a very young age. Living in fear and confined by painful secrets, she was plagued with constant threats, confusion, and pain. Not only was she stripped of her childhood and innocence, but she was also robbed of her confidence and self-worth. Feeling completely shattered and lost, Rivera plunged into a world of damaging habits and deep depression. For the first time ever, and with unflinching candor and courage, Rosie shares the traumatic details of her abuse and the daily struggle to live and how, through faith and the love of her family, she found life once more. Yet Rosie's life would be severely impacted once again as the worst tragedy imaginable hit and her biggest fear came to reality—the death of her beloved sister. Equally harrowing and uplifting, Rosie's story is a true testament to beating the odds and proves that despite the worst of times and no matter how many more challenges life has in store, it is always possible to pick up the pieces and find the strength and purpose to dream and live again. A song was given to me as a gift Straight from Heaven's throne. It made its way into my heart And there it made a home. . . The Songbird is just one of many poems in this book derived from the true "Author" and written from a Christian perspective. Through the guidelines of the nine fruits of the Spirit, each poem is meant to encourage, inspire, and uplift the reader. All of the poems in Parts One and Two are meant to bring Glory to God, and were written with that intent. God's love is more powerful than one may think! He introduces His love through a lovely thing called Grace. Grace is favor from the Lord that no one deserves. Faith in God can only come from God. Salvation is the gift that comes through faith in Jesus Christ, the Son of God. One can be saved when he confesses with his mouth and believes in his heart that God has raised Him from the dead. for with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation Saved by Grace, through Faith is described as a poetic gift.

40 something and newly divorced, Rafaela needed a change of scenery. Travelling abroad with a clutch of 20-something students to Spain was bound to be an adventure, but she got more than she bargained for in the process. What started as a journey of self-discovery quickly transformed her perspective and priorities. Everything that began Under the Clock propelled her into a world of bullfights, communist rallies and salsa dancing. Things get complicated when Salvador walks through the door, and now she fears risking her heart to love again. Is Salvador the caballero she always imagined existed? Or, will he simply dash her dreams of love among the tolling bells and cobblestone streets of Salamanca? Under the Clock offers the romantic revelations of Under the Tuscan Sun with the self-actualization of Eat, Pray, Love. Don't miss this romp through castles and cathedrals, fired up with flamenco and fiestas. You are sure to fall in love with the fabulous flavors of Spain, and one woman's testimony to the joys of mid-life crisis. Reader's Comments Just finished reading Under the Clock by Rafaela Molina. Purchased the Perfect Bound Softcover format. Ended up reading the book from cover to cover in one sitting because I could not put it down! She is truly a gifted writer, and her gift of eloquence allows you to fully visualize Spain through her eyes. I could not put the book down! Can't wait for my next trip to Spain, and can't wait for her to write a sequel! Terri Baker New Orleans, LA

Many people suffer in silence unaware that there are those in similar situations, knowing that there are those in similar situations can help them cope and understand that life must go on. One can take comfort knowing that others have similar problems. Life can be very difficult for some people, but realising that you are not alone can help. I just want these people to be strong. This book will help. My faith has helped me tremendously, and others can find similar ways of coping with difficult situations, Family is very important in those trying times, also the support of good friends, one should not bottle up problems, we are all here to support each other, so don't suffer in silence, it will do no good, find someone you can trust and talk it over. The mental homes are full of people who suffer in silence, don't let that happen to you. I went through the mill but got out in tact thank God, therefore I want to share my experiences of the good and bad times hoping that my story will help in some way .For those who will read this book may God guide you to do what will ease your pain.May he bless you with p
